

Home-style salmon bites

Juicy salmon bites from 'full muscle' fillets in a home-style coating: A delicious salmon snack. Tapping into the 'snacking & sharing' food trend the southern fried salmon bites open up new ways and moments of consumption for salmon. The light flour coating offers a pleasant bite without a fatty mouthfeel. Rich in omega-3 PUFAs: Healthy as well as delicious. The sophisticated coating process makes the product suitable to be sold in Modified Atmosphere Packaging (MAP) from the chilled fish shelves in the supermarket. Thanks to this process the product keeps its high scores on both food safety and sensory quality during the full length of its shelf life.
